About Us...

All Manner of Banners, All Kinds of Signs is a small business division of the Center of Hope Foundation, Inc. It operates as a digital, specialty wide graphic printing company, which offers the community affordable retail finish products, while providing employment and additional funding to the enrichment of individuals with intellectual disabilities.

The Center of Hope Foundation has been serving people with disabilities since 1956. The agency serves over 600 families in a 61 town area, with the mission of assisting people in living the most meaningful lives possible in their communities. The profits generated by All Manner of Banners, All Kinds of Signs are filtered back into a variety of unfunded programs offered at the Center of Hope Foundation for individuals with disabilities.
